educational placemats

Two great "Back to School" Assortments that are perfect for giving a fun "head start" to kids and making their first days of school very special. With our "Seek & Find" placemats, kids both delight and learn while finding the border images in the placemats. Our "Eat & Learn" placemats each come with fun and educational facts in the border. For additional placemat styles and display options, see our 2015 catalog.
