

THE CROCODILE CREEK

LIFETIME WARRANTY

QUALITY & SAFETY MATTER AT CROCODILE CREEK.

Producing quality and safe products for the children in our world is an important part of our mission. We work closely with all of our suppliers and manufacturers to make certain that our products continuously meet our high standards.

We at Crocodile Creek are proud of the materials and workmanship that go into each of our products, and because of this, we back them with a LIFETIME WARRANTY against manufacturer defects.

We care about the children in our world. We care about our customers. If our products do not meet the reasonable standards and expectations of our customers, we want to know about it so we can correct the situation and make our products better in the future. If a customer ever has a problem with our products, they are able to easily submit a warranty claim online to receive a credit or replacement.
