

PETER BROWN

Q: Where were you born?

A: Princeton, NJ

Q: Where do you currently live?

A: Brooklyn, NY

Q: Where did you do your art training?

A: Art Center College of Design

Q: Favorite toy as a child?

A: Legos

Q: Favorite picture book as a child?

A: The Rainbow Goblins

Q: Artists that have inspired you?

A: Alice & Martin Provensen, Edward Hopper, Eyvind Earle

Q: If you could go to a place back in time for a one day visit—when and where?

A: I'd join Neil Armstrong and Buzz Aldrin on the moon, on July 21, 1969.

ERIC BARCLAY

Q: Where were you born?

A: Fort Worth, TX

Q: Where do you currently live?

A: Dallas, TX

Q: Where did you do your art training?

A: I took oil painting classes from the time I was 12 until I graduated high school. I studied graphic design at the University of Texas at Arlington.

Q: Favorite toy as a child?

A: Legos!

Q: Favorite picture book as a child?

A: Go, Dog. Go! by P.D. Eastman

Q: Artists that have inspired you?

A: Stig Lindberg, Picasso, Charles Schultz, Chuck Jones, M. Sasek

Q: If you could go to a place back in time for a one day visit—when and where?

A: I would travel to 1955 for the grand opening of Disneyland. And I would ride every ride.

PETR HORACEK

Q: Where were you born?

A: Prague, Czechoslovakia

Q: Where do you currently live?

A: Worcester, United Kingdom

Q: Where did you do your art training?

A: I studied at the High School of Art in Prague and after working in a state design studio for two years studied painting at the Academy of Fine Art in Prague.

Q: Favorite toy as a child?

A: From the usual selection of match box cars and cowboys and Indians my great companion was a biro pen. I always drew a lot. I used to make up a comic books for my friends.

Q: Favorite picture book as a child?

A: "Polamal se Mravenec" by Josef Kozisek and illustrated by Ondrej Sekora.

Q: Artists that have inspired you?

A: Eric Carl, AnneHerbauts, Jiri Salamoun

